

Sales Representative

Watrous New Holland is seeking an individual to fill a Sales Rep position. This individual will be able to demonstrate a solid working knowledge of a variety of agricultural equipment, possess a valid driver's license, have strong people skills and be able to create and maintain strong customer relationships, apply mathematical skills to everyday work, be aggressive and competitive in an always growing market, and have the ability and desire to always be learning.

Watrous New Holland is a growing Agricultural Equipment dealer with 3 locations across Central Saskatchewan, including Watrous, Raymore, and Yorkton.

Centrally located amongst Saskatchewan's largest cities, Watrous is a growing community of 2,500+ people with all of the amenities the big cities, with a small town feel just minutes from the beach!

General duties and responsibilities of a Sales Rep include, but are not limited to:
Keep up to date knowledge and benefits on both new and used agricultural equipment
Maintain and keep current and in good standings, all manuals, price lists and other various documents
Assist the Sales Manager with field demonstrations
Maintain company vehicles as assigned
Maintain customer profiles, relationships and sales
Properly prepare and maintain and keep current various reports and documents pertaining to sales, trades, customer references, and any other areas as required
Achieve and maintain company standards and goals

Qualifications

Minimum Grade 12, education or experience in a related field is preferred, however the employer is willing to train the right candidate
Able to demonstrate a solid working knowledge of a variety of agricultural equipment
Must possess and maintain a current driver's license

Wage/Salary

Watrous New Holland offers competitive wages and comprehensive benefit packages.

To Apply

Fax (306) 946-2613 or e-mail mike@watrousnewholland.com your resume, attn Mike